

Supplementary Figure 1: Time-depth data for the five wells used in the study. Fitting a fourth-order polynomial trend-line through the cumulative data, and extrapolating it downwards, allows us to define seismic velocities at any depth.